

NO CHEERS; NO CROWDS WHEN SULZER DEPARTS

With Hat Pulled Down Over His Eyes

Deposed Governor Boards
"The Empire State."

ALBANY, N. Y., Oct. 22.—William Sulzer Tuesday night departed from Albany in silence. Not a friend outside of his official family accompanied him to the railroad station. Not a cheer greeted him as, with his hat drawn over his eyes and his chin buried in his overcoat collar, he walked slowly down the platform and boarded his car — by coincidence the "Empire State."

"I have no regrets," were his last words. "If I had everything to do over again, I would do just as I have done. My fight has just begun."

Half a dozen of his advisers will follow him to New York Wednesday to aid him in starting his fight for the assembly.

This delightful and refreshing hair-tonic, which is now sold at druggists and toilet counters in 50 cent bottles, is rigidly guaranteed. If Parisian Sage does not give complete satisfaction Wettkick's Original Kut Rate Medicine Store will refund your money.
